FINE ART GIVEAWAY

Saturday • July 20 • 12 - 4 pm

The late Hagop Chakrian was an Armenian-American fine artist who left of hundreds of Modigliani inspired figure paintings and lithographs — so many that they fill a warehouse. His family wants his legacy to endure by sharing his collection of oil paintings, watercolors and prints — some framed, some not. The Community Room will be transformed into an art gallery for the day, and refreshments served. Please stop by and take home an original work of art . . . or two.

Harper Lee's To Kill a Mockingbird Book-Blockbuster-Broadway

A Three-Chapter Friends Event • Summer to Fall 2019

When it was released in 1960, Harper Lee's novel, To Kill a Mockingbird proved a phenomenon. Set in the depression-era South, the tale about a crisis of conscience in a sleepy rural town is one of the 20th Century's most important works. Winner of the 1961 Pulitzer Prize for Literature, it was adapted as an acclaimed Hollywood film in 1962, featuring an Oscar-winning performance by Gregory Peck as Atticus Finch, a lawyer who takes on racial prejudice in the cause of justice.

A new theatrical production with Jeff Daniels at Broadway's Schubert Theatre offers a rare opportunity for fans of the arts to compare a classic story in three media. Join the Friends of the Blauvelt Free Library on a cultural journey from the Book to the Blockbuster to the Broadway Show.

Read

the book or listen to an audiobook of To Kill a Mockingbird. and join us to trade impressions over refreshments. With the book's 60th anniversary coming in 2020 and an earlier draft revealed in the plot of Go Set a Watchman (released in 2015) there's a lot to talk

ART TALK

JUNE | JULY | AUGUST 2019

Blauvelt Free Library

News from the

with Suzanne Altman

Sunday • June 23 • 2 pm COMMUNITY ROOM

On March 31, artist/educator, Suzanne Altman planned to present a talk on the groundbreaking Mexican artist, Frida Kahlo. Her talk touched on ways in which Kahlo utilized physical disabilities suffered in a childhood traffic accident to raise her profile in a modern way, essentially creating a Kahlo Brand. In an ironic twist of fate. Sue was injured in an auto accident the day before the program, and was unable to appear. She is now fully recovered and, happily, her talk has been rescheduled.
