Bocuse French Restaurant
at the Culinary Institute of America

Wednesday, October 17 • 11:30am • $90 • Coach loads at 9:15am

In an imposing, early 1900s edifice once home to a Jesuit seminary in Hyde Park, NY, is a sleek, contemporary eatery honoring a legendary French chef. The Bocuse Restaurant, which opened in 2012 at the Culinary Institute of America, salutes the late Paul Bocuse, an innovator who re-imagined the execution of classic French cuisine through the lens of ultra-modern cooking techniques. Students such as Anthony Bourdain honed their skills at this chic evocation of a Paris brasserie. The Friends of The Blauvelt Free Library invite you to lunch à la Française. You may also take a guided tour or a leisurely walk through the grounds. Visit the gift shop or relax in the bosom of the mighty Hudson.

$90 includes meal, tax, tips, and coach transport • Cash or check payable to The Friends of Blauvelt Free Library due at registration • LIMITED SEATING Must pay by July 1 • Coach departs library at 9:30am SHARP • Lunch at 11:30

GAMES

Making a Mahjong Announcement

The Friends of Blauvelt Free Library are forming an adult, teaching/playing mahjong group at 7pm on one Wednesday of every month (2nd or 3rd, TBA). Coffee will be provided by the library. This program could become part of a game night, which might include canasta, bridge, Scrabble—you name it— but initially, we will focus on establishing a regular monthly mahjong group. A call to the library at 845 359-2811 will help The Friends of Blauvelt Free Library determine interest and availability.
