

Defensive Driving

at Rockland County Libraries
or Continuing Education Centers

CoVid-19 update • September 3, 2021

The most active Defensive Driving instructor in the county, Arthur Aldrich passed in the spring of 2021, leaving two others to pick up the mantle of presenting classes at Rockland Libraries. You can contact them directly for info on any programs they are scheduling. Go to the individual Library's website for registration information. Note that the Covid Delta Virus may cause cancelation any of these events.
